

Designed for today's fast-paced environment, the KH^Q empowers students to learn on the go!

The KH^Q is a user-friendly application available on the iTunes and Google Play store that gives instructors the opportunity to upload their own questions based on their curriculum or select from a library of tested and proven terms and test questions from hundreds of PhDs and authors.

This unprecedented combination of customization and expert provided content provides endless possibilities for students and instructors.

With a wide variety of options for both learning and teaching, the KH^Q includes:

Course related study sections

Course related flash cards

Course related quizzes

Explanations of answers

Categories for struggling terms and questions

Overview of personal performance

Kendall Hunt
publishing company